Hi Kelly and Gina,

Attached is the draft document to forward to your attorney today to start reviewing. The percentages and growth numbers are not shown but are fillable areas. The reserve amount will also be updated based on the final plan you select. The designated NAF attorney in legal preparing this document is out of the office today. I was given permission to forward the attached to you. Each Division will also have it's own P&P addendum which will include marketing and other items specific to the Division.
